PASTE FOR TASTE SEEDS

Now it's getting trendy! In an incomparable way, we have combined the trend ingredients pumpkin seeds, seeds of the red quinoa, mountain lentils and Chia (Salvia hispanica) seeds to create a paste that not only brings a grainy texture with a special taste, but also a great look to all your baked goods.

Selected combination of special raw materials

- with value-defining trend ingredients such as pumpkin seeds, seeds of the red quinoa, mountain lentils and Chia (Salvia hispanica) seeds
- rounded off by sourdough and malt components
- produced without the use of additives
- intensive swelling of the ingredients

Simple handling of the product

- efficient, direct processing without swelling times
- very flexible regarding the quantity of addition
- can be added directly during dough preparation or can be mixed in

Enhancement of the baked goods character

- pleasant bite
- interesting crumb appearance and texture thanks to aromatic seeds and kernels
- balanced taste with a slightly sour and malty note
- significant improvement in moistness and freshkeeping
